STILL SEARCHING HOLMES' HOUSE.

Further Finds Which the Police Believe Will Fasten the Murder of Minnle Will-Hams-A House Built for the Purnose of Deliberate Slaughter.

CHICAGO, July 23 -Mrs B. F. Pitezel is back in Chicago after her trip to Toronto for the identification of the bodies of her children. She is now ready to tell all that she knows regarding the operations of Holmes as an insurance agent. He made important statements regarding the swindles and measures to carry them out, but says that she was kept in ignorance that any of them entailed murder.

Bones and articles of clothing were turned up in Holmes' house yesterday. Some of them were from the butcher shop, but others of the bones resembled those of a human body. In a chest holding secret belongings of Holmes' the police found a vest identified as one long worn by Holmes. and bearing dark stains resembling blood. Other articles of underwear, etc., were found. A shirt had the initials "G. B. D." worked in red letters. The box was found under the floor, and was covered over with a layer of fire brick. In the cellar, near where the bones were found, a woman's shoe was turned up with evidence of fire on the bottom of the sole.

As the earth where these articles were found was not removed in lying the foundation of the house, no reason for their burlal can be assigned by the police, except to hide murder. Close by is the bottom of the shaft which made quick connection between the top of the house and the basement, while just over the spot i the blind stairway, which leads into the third floor by the trap door placed under the stationary bath tab.

A meeting or the detectives engaged on opinion the he ise had been constructed for the purpose of deliberate slaughter. More care than ever will now be exercised in searching the premises. Holmes was formally charged with the crims of murder today. A warrant for his arrest on that charge was sworn out by A. Minier, nephew of Julia L. Connor, of Muscatine, Ia. Holmes is charged in the warrant with baving murdered Mrs. Conner some time between Aug. 1 and Nov. 1, 1892. The warrant was placed in the hands of the police, and while it cannot be served at the present it will be acted on the instant Holmes is freed from the charges pending against him in Philadelphia.

Fatal Ride to a Deathbod. DECATUR, Ind., July 23.-Late Sunday night word was received here from Monroe that Miss Mary Elzey was dying. William and Thomas Elzev started in separate buggles, with their wives, to see their dving sister. A few miles from this city a young man and lady who were out riding attempted to pass both the Elzeys. William Elzey's horse ran away, and in an almost instant the three rigs crashed together. The wounded and dying are at the hospital. They are: Mrs. William Elzoy, head and shoulders crushed, is dying: Mrs. Thomas Elzey, shoulders and limbs broken, will die; Miss Myers, both legs and back broken, cannot recover: William Elzey, arms broken and internally injured, recovery doubtful. The dying sister is calling for them, but is DUBLIN, July 23 .- The neighborhood of Dungaryan, County Waterford, is greatly excited over an agrarian outrage which occurred there. While the caretaker of a farm, whose tenants had been evicted, was sitting in his house with his wife, a number of shots were fired at them through the windows. The man was fa tally wounded and the woman dangerously hurt. The latter, hadly injured as she was, crawled two miles to the nearest house to get assistance.

Death of Ex-Governor Rice.

Boston, July 23.-Ex-Governor Alexander H. Rice died in Melrose yesterday afternoon, aged 75. He was elected mayor of Boston in 1835, serving two terms, was elected to congress in 1859, and served four terms. In 1875 he was elected governor of Massachusetts, to which office he was afterwards twice re-elected, and in which his | Judge Maynord to five years in the county administration was recognized as vigorous, prudent and progressive.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

Reported Surrender of Mariano Pino, the Noted Insurgent Leader.

HAVANA. July 23.—In the battle of Valenzuela, Lieutenant Colonels Baquero, San Martin, Lolo and Benites were wounded. The other officers wounded were Captain Tranesi, Lieutenant Soto, principal aide de camp to General Santocildes, who was also killed.

Lieutenant Colonel Teruel's command, in conjunction with a detachment of the marine infantry, after having been in pursuit of the insurgents commanded by Zaras, overtook them, and at the first discharge the insurgents fled, leaving two dead upon the field. Later they were met by the marine infantry acting with Colonel Teruel's troops, and the insurgents were routed and dispersed, leaving four dead and twelve wounded upon the field. The troops also captured a number a horses and a quantity of ammunition.

A dispatch from Cienfuegos, province of Santa Clara, announces the surrender there of the insurgent leader, Maxiamo Pino. Two other insurgents, armed with rifles, have surrended at Vueltas, and eighteen insurgents, with rifles and ammunition, revolvers and machetes, have given themselves up to the authorities at

At Guines, in the Sagna district, five insurgents went to a store and demanded arms. The clerks in charge, not having any to surrender, so informed the insurgents, who fired upon the defenseless men and killed two of them.

Bir. Dallon's Protest.

Washington, July 23 -The secretary of the treasury yesterday received from William Hosen Ballon, of New York, vice president of the American Humane association, a letter protesting against the proposed buil fight at the Atlanta exposition. and asking the secretary to "a-e his good offices to avert a national scandal" by preventing the importation of the bulls on the ground of their being "immoral im-ports," and refusing admission to the for-eadors. If these exhibitions are given Mr. Ballou says all persons connected there with will be arrested and prosecuted. A Murderous Italian Knucked Out.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 23.-Antony Goderelli, an Italian, shot at a crowd of boys yesterday, and the bullet imbedded itself in the corset of Mrs. Hornecker, without doing any injury. Later he drew his gun on Dominick Morrelli because the latter took exception to the shooting, and Morrells immediately seized a pick handle and fractured his opponent's skull. Goderelli will probably die. Morrelli was arrested.

Damage to Minnesota Wheat.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 23.—Specials to the Journal confirm the reports of smut on wheat in the northern part of the Red River valley, running from Grand Forks to the line. Smut is also found in scattering fields of barley and oats. The condition is reported as not serious as yet, taking the whole acreage, but it is expected to lower yields considerably.

The Nicaragua Commission at Work. NEW YORK July 23 -The Nicaragua canal commission, which arrived on Sunday on the United States cruiser Montgomery, has opened headquarters in the Army building. There the commission will work on its report to President Cievaland. The real work of getting the report ready will not begin until the early part of next week.

The Disaster at Breux, Bohemia. BREUX, Bohemia, July 23 -It has been definitely ascertained that twenty-five houses have been totally destroyed and fifty-nine partly destroyed by the remarkable sinking of the earth here. AGAIN THE DEFENDER.

The New Yacht Once More Proves Her Superiority.

VIGILANT GREATLY IMPROVED.

But, Though the Race Was Sailed in a Light Wind, the Defender Came in a Winner by Over Nine Minutes in a Thirty

NEW YORK, July 23.-The second trial that the Defender had in New York waters against the Vigilant yesterday only furnished more evidence that the new boat is better than the old in light weather. They sailed over a triangular course outside of Sandy Hook, and were tested in pretty nearly every kind of sailing. They started out before the wind; before they had got half way on the journey of the first leg of ten miles they were sailing with the wind over the quarter; before they got to the end of that first leg they were even more closely hauled; on the second leg of the three they were reaching free and tacking. and on the final angle were able to head to the home mark with a fairly well lifter of weather that prevailed, but that weather wa- of the lightest character. At no time did the breeze blow harder than twelve knots an hour, and it fell at times to four. On the run out before the wind, at the start, the Vigilant not only held her own for a period, but at the end of four miles was well abeam of the Defender. This run was made with spinnakers set and drawing, under which conditions it is almost universally conceded that the Vigilant is the fastest boat in the world. She showed those same qualities here as well as on the other side of the Atlantic.

When it came to the point, however, where, because of a little shift in the wind, spinnakers had to be hauled in and booms hauled inboard the Defender inwas never afterwards overhauled during the entire thirty miles, unless it might have been on certain little portions of the course where the wind dropped to almost usthing. In those spaces it seemed as though the Vigliant picked up, but the gain was inconsiderable. The run between the marks show that the Defender gained in each of the three angles.
It was expected that the Vigilant would show up with new sails, but it turned out that she had only time to make a few alterations in the canvas that she used on Saturday. One improvement there cer tainly was in her outfit, the cleaning of her centreboard. A diver was sent down to examine that once wonderful piece of yachting architecture on Sunday, while the boat lay inside of the Sandy Hook horseshoe. He found it covered with barnacles and grass. The cleaning of the board, tegether with the change of the cut of her sails, made the boat do better, without doubt, than she did on Saturday. Yet the only time she gained on the Do fender was when she had that same old champion centreboard hauled up and of

The Defender appeared in just about the same form as she showed in the first race. Trifling improvements had been made in her block work and a small cut of her club topsail. If there was any improvement in form it was in the Vigilant, and makes the Defender's performance more

The result of Saturday's and yesterday's races are before the cup committee, and it is problematical whether any further trial races of the Vigilant, or of any other boats, will be had against Defender to finally settle which shall defend the America's cub.

The following is the official time of the race: Start-Defender, 11:25:30; Vigilant, 11:26:01. First Buoy-Defender, 12:57:01; Vigilant, 12:59:08. Second Buoy - De fender, 2:50:11; Vigilant, 2:57:50. Finish -Defender, 3:45:00; Vigilant, 3:54:48. Elapsed Time-Defender, 4:19:30; Vigilant, 4:28:47, HEAVY FLOOD AT DUNBAR. Bridges and Houses Washed Away and One Life Reported Lost.

DUNBAR, Pa., July 23.—The heaviest rain storm and flood that has visited this place for many years occurred last night. Rain began to fall about 6:30, and continned in torrents for ever three hours. The bridges between Dunbar and Uniontown are all washed away, and the tracks in many places are also washed out. The local streams are swollen higher than at any time since the flood of 1888.

People along the banks of Dunnbar creek were obliged to fice for their lives and buildings were carried away in the tor-rent. The bridge crossing the creek which runs through town was swept away. The Dunbar Furnace company and Dunbar Fire Brick company's plants are all flooded. The less will amount to thousands of dollars. Lightning and hail accompanied the storm and played havee at many places. It is reported that Samuel Washabaugh, pumperauthe Cambria Iron company works, has been drowned.

Murderously Assaulted by a Robber.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—The store of Henry C. Ewing, dealer in wall paper and interior decorations, No. 1208 Chestnut street, was the scene of a murderous assault yesterday, followed by an attempted safe robbery. The victim of the assault was Oliver S. Humes, a salesman, and his assailant and the would be safe robber was a negro boy known as "Tim," who has been in Mr. Ewing's employ about three months. He succeeded in making his escape. When found Mr. Humes was unconsolous, having been repeatedly struck with a shovel during a terrible struggle. After having subdued Humes the negro took the key of the safe from his pocket, but broke it off in the door. Then he quickly made his escape.

Willimantic's Bursted Bank.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., July 23 .- "Bank closed for examination" are the words placarded on the door of the Dime Savings bank, while among the citizens here keen interest in all the details of all the bank's affairs is manifested. State Attorney Hunter applied for a receiver today, and George O. Stiles is mentioned for the appointment. A bond of $10,000, Walden's security, was unearthed today, but it is thought to be worthless, as the maker of it is William Wild, of New York, brother of the missing man, is said to own no real Killed by a Desperate Negro.

CALLAHAN. Fig., July 23 - Jasper N. Higginbotham, one of the best known men in this county, was killed here yesterday at Dynl's Station by George Seymour, a notorious negro character. Seymour was wanted for some offense. The sheriff sent Higginbotham and Jim Dyal to make the arrest. The negro began shooting when the men approached him. Higginbotham teil, but not until he shot the negro. Higginbotham died and Seymour is not expected to live.

Heaviest Rain in Ten Years.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 23 .- It has been raining for twenty-four hours north and west of this city, and it is still pouring down here. On the east of the Galistee river, a small mountain stream, four Santa Fe passenger trains, south and westbound, are tied up. Four bents of the Galistee bridge have gone down the raging stream. All trains from the west are delayed. New Mexico has had more rain in the past two weeks than in ten years before.

HORR-HARVEY DEBATE.

Continuation of the Contest Between Oratorical Gladiators.

HARVEY QUOTES MINT REPORTS.

To Show That Silver Dollars Have Been Coined Nearly Every Year - Mr. Horr Declares That the World Has Declared Against Silver.

CHICAGO, July 23 —The Horr-Harvey Rebate on silver was resumed at the Illinois club rooms yesterday afternoon. There was a fair attendance.

Mr. Horr opened the dispute with a written argument touching the impossibility of maintaining a fixed ratio between gold and silver. As the result of experience all of the civilized nations of the globe had discarded silver as a standard money. It was useless to exploit long tables of ratios to show whether a double standard could be maintained. The world had pronounced against silver.

Mr. Harvey, taking up Mr. Horr's eulogy of Senator Morrill, delivered on Saturday, charged that Senator Morrill erred in saying that no silver dollars had been coined for forty years. Prior to 1873. Mr. Harvey read from the report of the director of the mint showing that silver dollars in greater or less amounts had been coined nearly every year. The fact was that Mr. Morrill was a bank stockholder, with a bank stockholder's prejudies. He called on Mr. Horr to explain.

Mr. Horr said that Mr. Morrill had not meant to say that not a dollar had been coined, but that none to speak of had. At most it would be said that Mr. Morrill had made a mistake. Mr. Harvey in his book had made a mistake, and a bad one, in stating the amount of silver which had been coined during the life of the govern-

The greatest interest centered in Mr. Harvey's effort to demonstrate that the full remonetization of silver by the United States would double the value of everything in the country except debts. Mr. Horr pronounced this proposition absurd. "We might as well say that if we cut our yard sticks in two," said he, "we would double the amount of clothing in the country. If half the gold in the world were destroyed would not the value of the gold dollar be doubled?"

The remaining debate centered about this point, advocates of each side giving generous applause to the advantage gained by their favorites.

Philadelphia's Striking Weavers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—The strike of the ingrain capet weavers remains un-changed. The manufacturers carried out their aunouncement by throwing open the mills for such as chose to return to work at the old scale until Dec. 1, when the increase demanded would be granted. Only fourteen strikers returned to their looms, however, and this slight break in the ranks is not regarded as serious to the cause of the striking weavers. On the other hand, one mill, that of Archibald Holmes, employing twenty-four weavers, capitulated and signed the new schedule, all of their employes returning to work, but the determined manufacturers do not believe that this will affect the ultimate Murdered by a Tramp.

BALTIMORE, July 23.-Walter Emily, of Washington, was murdered last night on the Philadelphia road, near Orangeville. by William Wiley, a tramp. Emily is a stationary engineer. He lost his place on Saturday, and, with Harry Hickinson, of Washington, came to this city. They fell in with Wiley on Sunday. Going out the Philadelphia road. Hickinson gave Wiley ten cents to buy beer for the party. Wilev did not get the beer, and Hickinson demanded the return of the ten cents. Wiley refused, and a fight followed. Later Emily reproached Wiley for keeping the ten cents, and the latter stabbed Emily five times. He died in the hospital. Wiley and Hickinson were arrested.

Watching the Bannock Indians.

CHEYENNE, Wyo, July 23 -Governor Richards has received advices that some forty young Bannock bucks are in the vicinity of Hall's Fork, a station on the Oregon Short Line, in Uintah county. The Indians have a big horse herd with them, and are inducing the Utes to visit them ostensibly to trade horses. There are no squaws with their band, and it is believed that their real object is to have a sun dance if the Utes join them. Their movements will be closely watched, and they will not be permitted to commit depreda-

A HOTEL GHOST.

The Narrative of a Singular Experience of Lord and Lady Dunraven.

Apropos of a report that the Brevoort House was to be closed, which was denied, however, there is a story that Lady Dunraven has been known to tell about the famous old inn. The countess is described by those who know her as a woman much more inclined to common sense than to ghost haunted Cock lanes, even with Dr. Johnson's authority. She used to tell the facts in the tale simply for what they were worth.

It was more than one decade ago, years before the Valkyrie was thought of, when Lord Dunraven was first interested in the mining regions of northern Michigan. He and Lady Dunraven were staying in New York for a few days before starting west and had taken rooms at the Brevoort-pleasant rooms, with a view of the avenue and a nice glimpse of Washington square. The first night, being tired with their voyage, they went early to bed, but, as it happened, not so early to sleep. Both the earl and countess were blessed with hearty English constitutions. They were not at all accustomed to lying awake till the small

They wondered what they could have doze, what they could have eaten or drank to afflict them with such gratuitons vigilance. Just at a venture finally they bundled themselves out into the adjoining parlor, made themselves extempore couches there and slept soundly till morning. Next night and the night after there was the same wakefulness and in the end the same migration to the adjoining room for relief. They began to think they should have to leave town earlier than they had planned, for they would not for the world have made any pretext to shift chambers.

The explanation of the mystery, if it was an explanation, carrie out by chance. They had a call before long from an old time New Yorker whom they had met in England, an authority on all matters pertaining to the town's minor history. "I wonder," he remarked casually, "that they should have given you these rooms. You know it was in that room there, not so long ago, that a Mr. X—hanged himself." It was in that room that Lord and Lady Dunraven had tried in yain to sleep, and they exchanged significant glances. Of course it was only coincidence, they said, but the next day they took their departure for the west. - New York Tribune.

INFLUENCE OF SCIENCE.

The Characteristic of Savants Is Their Unfailing Optimism.

The best that we gain from the pursuit of research is, Professor C. S. Minot writes in The Popular Science Monthly, our characteristic optimism. We are engaged in achieving results, and results of the most permanent and enduring quality. A business man may achieve a fortune, but time will dissipate it. A statesman may be the savier of a nation, but how long do nations live? Knowledge has no country, belongs to no class, but is the might of mankind, and it is mightier for what each of us has done. We have brought our stones, and they are built into the edifice and into its grandeur. My stone is a small one. It will certainly be forgotten that it is mine; nevertheless it will remain in place.

How different is the pessimism to ward which literary men are seen to tend! Harvard university lost James Russell Lowell in 1891 and Asa Gray in 1888. The letters of both of these eminent men have been published. Lowell's letters grow sad and discouraged, and he gives way more and more to the pessimistic spirit. Gray is optimistic steadily and to the end. The difference was partly due to natural temperament, but chiefly, I think, to the influence of their respective professions. The subject material of the literary man is familiar human nature and familiar human surroundings, and his task is to express the thoughts and dreams which these suggest. He must compete with the whole past, with all the genius that has been. There is nothing new under the sun, he exclaims. But to us it is a proverb contradicted by our daily experi-

Galvanic Bronzing.

By means of a recent French improvement the process of galvanic bronzing is said to have been made not only more simple, but capable also of giving every tone, from that of barbedian bronze to antique green, governed by the length of time that the copper is allowed to remain in contact with the liquid. After the piece has been well scoured it is covered by means of a brush with a mixture composed of 20 parts of castor oil, 80 of alcohol and 40 parts each of soft seap and water. Thus treated, the piece left to itself for a period of 24 hours becomes brouzed, and if the duration of contact be prolonged the tone changes, a very great variety of tones, pleasing in their appearance, being obtainable in this manner. The drying is finally effected with hot sawdust, the only remaining operation being then that of coating the piece with a colorless varnish largely diluted with alcohol, thus insuring work of the finest character.-New York Sun.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsla and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with dorelief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medcine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Committee Description of the Committee o Goodby! Goodby! How hard to say When fondest hearts must sever! One word, one look, thy hand in mine, And then we part forever.

Goodby! Goodby! I hear it still,
That bitter note of sadness: Its lingering echoes sound to me A knell of dying gladness.

Goodby! Goodby! Though sets the sun, Though fails the darkness coldly, Remember thou hast duties yet And face the future boldly. Goodby! Goodby! From out the past Looks forth thy face to cheer me.

Oh, do not ask me to forget If memory brings thee near me.

THE FISH'S BALLOOM.

A Mystery That Scientists Have Not Yet Been Able to Solve.

Naturalists long ago studied the composition of the gas contained in the swimming bladder of fishes and discovered that it consists of the principal constituents of the air-namely, oxygen, nitrogen and carbonic acid. But these constituents are not mingled in the fish's balloon in the same proportions as they are in the atmosphere, and besides their proportions do not remain always the same in the fish. Sometimes the bladder contains hardly any oxygen; at others oxygen constitutes nine-tenths of the whole centents.

The variation in the quantity of oxygen is somewhat mysterious, and naturalists have offered several different suggestions as to the cause of it. Some think the fish may be able to control the quantity of oxygen in its bladder by its own will. Biot, a distinguished French naturalist, thought he had solved the problem by discovering that the proportion of oxygen was larger in fish that lived at great depths and smaller in those that lived near the surface of the

But quite recently new observations made from the Prince of Monaco's yacht, Princess Alice, seem to prove that Biot was mistaken and that the deep dwelling fish carry no more oxygen in proportion than do those living in shallow water. Some of the fish whose swimming bladders were examined by the naturalists on the Princess Alice came from a depth of no less than a mile.

They were compared with fish which seldom descend below 200 feet in depth and with others which prefer a depth of about 500 or 600 feet, and all had nearly the same proportion of oxygen to aid them in swimming.

The variations mentioned above seem therefore to depend upon some other cause than the depth of the fish's dwelling place.

It is these unsettled questions that offer to young naturalists some of their most brilliant opportunities for distinction. It is a great mistake to suppose that there does not remain a plenty of room for discovery in science. - Youth's Companion.

Why He Shook the Child.

A man riding in a Broad street omnibus the other day, with a small child in his arms, was the object of many frowns from the other passengers, because he persisted in vigorously shaking the little one on account of her crying. The shakings he gave the child did not appear to have any effect except to make her cry the harder. The women in the bus glared at the man and said mean things about him to each other. The men looked over the tops of their papers occasionally and swore inaudibly. The father were a worried look, and the baby continued to cry. Occasionally it would stop, and its head would nod sleepily. Then the father would shake the youngster vigorously, waking it up and starting its tears afresh.

Finally a woman, who had been nervously watching the unnatural father, walked over and asked him why he was maltreating the youngster. "Why," said he, "I've got to shake her to keep her awake. She swallowed some kind of a drug, and if she goes to sleep she'll die." Just then the bus stopped at Broad and Thompson, and the father and child got off and entered the Children's hospital.—Philadelphia Record.

His Notion of Hospitality.

There is nothing like making people feel at home. There is one man in our street, says a Washington writer, who prides himself on it. My friend Lucy called at his house not long ago, and, as everybody urged her to stay to dinner, she staid. They had beefsteak for dinner that night, and it was simply ideal beef-The host urged Lucy to take a second helping, and after politely demurring she accepted it. She was eating it when the young son of the family asked for more too.

"Den't be a pig, Jim," said his father, with the utmost cheerfulness. There isn't any more for you. You see," turning to Lucy with a smile of keenest hospitality, "we weren't expecting company."

Brings comfort and improvement and nds to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live bet-ser than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly stanting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid axative principles embraced in the emedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidzeys, Liver and Bowels without weak ming them and it is perfectly free from very objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

DON'T YOU DO IT!

Don't You Put Any Money in Building Lots that are from One to Two Miles from Franklin Square.

True, "some time," the city will grow out tha far. but when? True, you can get there by taking the troiler, but that costs each year as much as the interest on a complete house and lot. Don't you nut any money in a building lot that can't be reached by water, gas mains and the sewer system, and that are outside of the corporation limits o the city. These facts are more important than they at first seem. Don't you let any man but a restriction in your deed. Own your land in fee simple, without one single restriction that will prevent your selling it. Any good lawyer will tell you that,

If you want to make a loan to help yourself build, it will be different. Because your insurance costs more. Because your house may burn down without fire prot-ction. Because you will always have to depend on a well or cistern. Because your wife can't walk if she misses the last car- Because you can never have a sewer. Because deep snow may keep you home for two or three days. Because your land won't increase in value.

RICHMOND HILLI

Lots have passed the experimental stage. We have sold 150, to many of the best citizens of the city. The lots are only five minutes from Franklin Square. They are nearer than the Wickham avenue depot, they are on high ground, they are rapidly building up, they are within the city, they are a short distance of sewer, water and gas, they are large lots, they overlook the entire city, they are backed by men who won't see them lie idle (for this year at any rate), they are cheap in price to the first comers. We are selling them on easy term - $5 per month, without interest, and a suitable reduction for each.

Off-The Obliging Steamboatman. Refused to Quash Jachne's Indictment. The experience of a sign painter at NEW YORK, July 23 .- Recorder Goff, to Fort Sumter makes a diverting story: professional bondsman and brother of the "boodle" alderman, was referred, per-emptorily retused to quash Jachne's in-

"You see. I got a darky to take me over from Charleston in one of these little boats that they sail down there closer to the wind than anything I ever saw before. The fort was unoccupied except by an old soldier, who showed me all over the place 'Have a drink, corporal?' said I to him after aw. le. 'No objections,' said he, and we walked and talked a little further. 'Pretty lonesome here, eh, sergeent?' 'Very, indeed,' an-swered the old duck, warming to me as I brevetted him a grade higher every two or three minutes.

"'Ah, said I, 'it's a tough old biz, the army, ain't it, lieutenant? 'Faith,

'Well, I brought my flask out again and pressed it upon him. 'Now, look here, captain, said I, 'you don't mind me painting a sign around the old fort, do you? Ner a bit, my son. Paint as much as ye plaze,' he answered quite willingly, and away I went to work, finishing the lettering before sundown.

"That little business nearly got me into trouble, and I left Charleston in a hurry. Nearly as bad was the time I was painting on a beehive. I was walking along the railway track with my pots and brushes and saw the hive, which was in A1 position, bound to be seen by everybody in the trains. I stole up to it and slathed on the paint, taking care not to make much noise. Buz-z-z! One little fellow came to look at me, then another, then another and then a score or more all at cace. They didn't seem to object-in fact, seemed to admire the richness of the coloring-but in slinging my leg over the top of the hive I upset my can of turpentine, and not one bee in the crowd would listen to a word of reason. I was laid up for a week or two after that, but I can't be quiet long. It ain't in me to be still. I'm an out and out Yankee, and it warms my heart to be off with the paints, and it ain't incumbent upon me now."

pregnant glance at his massive watch chain and jeweled sleeve buttons, which indicated no little prosperity.

"When anybody gets his back up at me, I just let him blow his steam off, and then I talk to him," he continued. 'Down in Maryland one day I was painting a fence, and a fellow working in a field near by bollered out: 'Hi! Git away from that yar fence!' I let on not to hear him. 'You git now!' the old man shouted once more, but I dabbed and dabbed away as industriously as ever. 'You won't, won't yer?' said he, and then he came for me with a pitchfork in his hands. Folks in Maryland are generally pretty much in earnest when they are mad, but I didn't move an inch. He'd have lifted me like a piece of toast if I had, and instead of a toust it would have been a reast for me.

"I looked as mild and innocent as I could, shared out the letters and held my head back now and then as if to study the effect. 'Don't you like it? said I as he got up to me. Well, he met me with some high sealoned expostulations; but, as I told you, I nover interfere with a man when he's blowing off steam; it isn't safe. The pitchfork did not lok salabayas, but I held to my work, and as I was thrishing it he Legan to coll off and at the same time to take an intrest in the sign. "Got a family? so d.L. 'Yes,' said he. 'Young uns, too, maybe.' 'Yes,' said he again. 'Well, now, said I, 'am t you ashamed of yourself to let your temper get the better of you in this way? Think of the bad effect on your children. But I'll paint it out.' No, leave it on, stranger: I like it,' he answered, and we went over to the house together, which provethat when a man's blowing off it's best

"I went up the Mississippi with old Captain Leathers in the Natchez, with her smokestacks painted crimson to signify that they would be burned red hot before she would be passed, and at the first landing I:et to work on all the rocks. The old captain was immensely tickled with the idea. 'Look at the darned Yank! he cried to the passengers. 'How long before you start, cap?' shouted I. 'We'll wait till you get through,' he answered, and he did the same thing at every other landing. But the newspapers have made such an outcry against the desecration of nature, as they call it, that a law forbidding it has been passed in some of the states, and, on the whole, rock painting is discouraged by our patrens, who think it spoils the sale of their articles."-Chicago Times-Herald.

A Woman of Nerve.

Mrs. Louis Kirshoffer of Orange, N. J., is a woman of nerve. The other day a hound belonging to her husband went mad, broke his chain and made a dash at one of Mrs. Kirshoffer's sons. He tore the boy's clothes, but fortunately did not bite hard enough to break the skin. Mrs. Kirshoffer rushed to her son's aid, and the dog turned on her and bit her, but her clothes were too thick for him to break the skin. She then picked the dog up by the collar, carried him to the cellarway, threw him down the steps and closed the door. Mr. Kirshoffer came home later and shot him.

Quay is disposed to attach national importance to his fight for the control of the Pennsylvania machine. A day or two ago he declared that his defeat would mean the renomination of Harrison in 1896.

Fifty children were poisoned in Syracuse, Sunday, by eating cream bought from a street vender. Investigation shows that he bought melted and wasted cream from restaurants and froze it over again, and it is believed that while the stuff was melted decomposition begun and tyrotoxicon developed.

A Freehold, N. J., young man who jilted one girl, robbed two others and married a fourth girl to whom he had given an engagement ring borrowed from another of his dupes, seems to have besten the record for versatile idiocy. And it may be added that the Freehold girls have beaten the record for gullibility.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has ordered a hundred new locomotives built. Evidently the astute managers of this greatest of all railroad corporations in the countryare brimful of confidence in growing volume of prosperity for the Ameri can people under the auspices of Democratic tariff. This is action that speaks more loudly than can all the speeches McKinley can pound out between now and the Ides of November, 1896

The Proposed Bridge Over the Erie at the Summit.

Capt. Rockwell stated to members of the Common Council, last night, that the bridge which it is proposed to build over the Erie road at the Summit to reach the State Hospital with the electric care, will be twentyfive feet wide; the rails will be laid in the centre and flush with the planking which will give the public the use of the whole of the bridge when cars are not passing over and will give a driveway of ten feet on each side of the track.

Trees on James Street Cut Down

The trees in front of the Russell House are being cut down to-day. They withered and died for lack of moisture, the flag stones on one side and the asphalt blocks in the street preventing the rain from sinking down to the roots.

There are those on James street who believe it would have been a good idea to have cut down the trees before the curb line of the street was curv. d out of a straight line to save

The Extensions of the Electric Itali-

The extension of the electric road in the North End is being pushed forward very rapidly, and it is expected the line will be completed to a point near the toll gate by Saturday night.

If the Railroad Committee of the Common Council, as 13 plobable, gives permission to lay the track on the side of the roadway in Lake ava nue, the construction of that portion of the road to the State Hospital will be commenced early next week.

A SMALL NEGRO GIRL PREACHING. From the Washington Post,

A phenomenal nine-year-old negro girl preacher is interesting Society Hill, S. C. For a week the child has conducted a series of revival meetings and the effect of her preaching is reported to be wonderful. She is without education, and developed her strange powers not more than ten days ago. At first she preached only to the negroes, but now white people are flocking to hear her, and the whole country round about is in great excitement. She quotes Scripture by the chapter, uses good language, and shows amazing insight into the frailties of humanity. A number of conversions are reported from her work.

OBITUARY.

Walter L. McCord.

Walter L. McCord, a well known and highly respected citizen of this city, died at 11 o'clock, last night, after a short illness.

Deceased was born at Scotchtown, September 22, 1829, and was therefore in his sixty-seventh year. Mr. Mc-Cord was twice married. His first wife died about thirty-six years ago, and on March 4th, 1863, he was married to Miss Sarah Reeve, who survives nim.

No children were born to Mr. and Mrs. McCord. They had, however, two nieces and one nepbew whom they reared as their own children, and who survive the deceased. They Mrs. George T. Walker and Mrs. Carl Iseman and Lewis Finch, proprietor of the meat market at the corner of Orchard and East Main streets. Mr. McCord is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. Virgil Crist and Mrs. Andrew Consoles, of Crystal Rue, and Mrs. Arnold Mc-Carter, of Nebraska, and one stepbrother, James Monnell, of this city.

Mr. McCord has resided in this city for fifty years, and for more than forty years has been engaged in the meat business. He retired about three years ago.

Mr. McCord, by a strictly honest and upright life, won the respect of his fellow citizens, and his kindly face and pleasant words will be missed by all.

The funeral will be held from his late residence, No. 70 Grand avenue, Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

CHILDREN IN A RUNAWAY.

Three Children of Martin Jones Budly Hurt at the Unionville Creamery. From our Unionville Correspondent.

While Martin Jones's three children were on their way to the creamery with the milk this morning, the breeching broke as they were coming down the church bill and the horse became unmanageable and tan away. It ran into Mr. Kimble's milk wagon, breaking the axle and then on to the creamery where the children were thrown out.

The oldest boy had one of his legs broken below the knee; the second suddenly. Saturday morning, after child received a bad scalp wound and being driven several times on the the little one's face was badly cut and bruised. Dr. Nugent was called to attend the injured children.

Didn't Mind a Break Down and Woulda't

Walk While she Could Coast

Yesterday afternoon two young ladies who had een riding through the State Hospital grounds, came home through Monhagen avenue. While descending the hill leading to Mill street the sprocket wheel on lone of the machines broke, the chain and the rear wheel flew off and the fair rider went sprawling upon the ground, but fortunately was not seriously hurt.

A young man assisted her in putting on the wheel, but the broken sprocket wheel rendered the machine useless. After gracefully thanking the young man for his assistance, the young girl remarked that she did not propose to walk while the coasting was good and mounting her wheel side fashion went spinning down the hill laughing over her little mishap.

Hopes to Get in Three Loads To-day-Angry at a Rumor That the Council Proposed to "Stint" Him for Time.

customary daily trip to the North End, this morning, to note the progress of work in David R. Miller's hay field, he found that despite the "catchy weather," Mr. Miller had run his mowing machine, yesterday afternoon, and had got down about three loads of hay which he hoped to

Some enemy of Mr. Miller's peace of mird had quite "flustrated" him by telling him that the Council at its meeting last night had passed an ordinance requiring him to finish having and cutting oats by Aug. 1st. Mr. Miller said that of course if the Council passed any such fool ordinance he'd try and obey it. but it "riled" him to think the Aldermen should attempt to interfere with his right to get his hay in his own way. He could, of course, fight such an ordinance on broad constitutional grounds, for it impaired the obligation of a contract. His agreement with the Council was that he was to bargain. For the Council to "stint" him on time and try to make him cart in green hay, or cut his grass in "lowery" weather, or stay home from excursions and picaics was "rotten mean," and though he wanted to keep friends with the Aldermen, "who were a good lot of fellows, dead easy to handle any way he wanted to, he'd be teetotally jiggered" if he'd stand any such nonsense.

THE MAIN STREET PAVING.

Bids To be Asked For East Waln Street Only-Nothing to be Done West of

As will be seen by reading the report of the meeting of the Common Council last night, bids will at present only be asked for paving Hast Main street. This is as it should be, for, while the resolution to pave included West Main street it is generally understood that the Aldermen didn't mean it. They knew well enough there is not money enough to do the work and that the people on the street didn't want it anyway. It was simply a trick to give Mr. move the street and fix it up in pass. Sinsabaugh an excuse for a change able shape, "after haying," and he of position so that he could help out proposed to live up to his part of the "the Mayor's gang," in the scheme to Mr. Hirst this bit of by-play is ended and the Council can now go on and pave East Main street and quit fooling.

r visited his bed. But found him slumbering deep. With darkened cyclids and their lashes yet From his late sobbing wet.

And I, with moun, Kissing away his tears, left others of my own, For on a table drawn beside his head A box of counters and a red vein'd stone, A piece of glass abraded by the beach He had put, within his reach,

And six or seven shells, A bottle with bluebells And two French copper coins, rang'd there with careful art

To comfort his sad heart. So when that night I prayed
To God and wept and said:

HE WAS VERY HUNGRY. How a Texan Got a Good Meal at a General's Expense.

Mr. Goss. in his "Recollections of a Private," quotes the remarks of a Confederate about two famous leaders under whom he had fought. This man said of Stonewall Jackson, 'If you ams had some good general like him, I rockon you uns could lick we uns." When asked whether he had ever seen General Lee, he replied: "Yes; I was a sort of orderly for Uncle Robert for awhile. He's a mighty calmlike man when a fight is going on."

This story is told of General John B.

-Magrader: "Our General Magrader thinks a pow erful heap of what he cats and wears. He allers has a right smart of truck. "There was a Texas feller one time who had straggled from his brigade, and he were a pert one, he were, stranger. He were hungry enough to eat a general, buttons and all—that Texas feller were. He saw Magruder's table all spread, with a heap of good fixin's on it, and I'll be hanged if he didn't walk in, pert as you please, grabbed a knife and fork and opened fire all along the line on them fixin's.

"Magrader heard something in his tent and hurried in and asked that Texas chap what brought him thar. The Texan lowed he were hungry. Then the general, stiff and grandlike, said, 'Do you know, sir, at whose table you are eatin? "The Texas chap, he kept drivin in the pickets on them chick'ns, and he said to the gen'ral, said he, 'No, old hoss, and I ain't no ways partic'lar, neither, since I've come solderin.' "

"What did Magruder do?" asked a Yankee listener.

"Do? Why, he saw them chicken fixin's were spiled, and he jest put his arm under his conttail, pulled his hat over his eyes and walked out. And that Texas hoss didn't leave anything on that thar table 'cept the plates-not even his compliments.

"Who were he? Well, no matter. He "Who were he? Well, no matter. He hadn't no manners, he hadn't. He were hadn't no manners, he hadn't. He were powerful hungry, stranger, that chap

STARTED THE CRUSADE. Mother Stewart Is an Honored Veteran

In the Temperance Cause. Among the many prominent temperance workers who attended the recent convention of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance union in London none was received with more enthusiasm or attracted more attention than the gray haired, sweet voiced "crusader," Mrs. Eliza D. Stewart, known the world over as "Mother Stewart." Her good work of nearly 20 years ago, when through her effects the British Woman's Temperance union was organized, had not been forgotten, and the reception accorded her when she spoke at the City Temple amounted to an ovation.

Mrs. Stewart is a native of Ohio and was born at Pilieton April 25, 1816. She was left an orphan at 12 and thrown upon her own re ources. Early she develored those sterling characteristics which made her so useful in educational and referm work. She was educated at Murietta seminary and adopted teaching as a profession, attaining a representative standing among the educators of the state.

She has been twice married, the secand time to Hiram Stewart, who was a stanch advocate of the temperance principles she advocated and greatly assisted her in the work. She had no children of her own, but took to her motherly heart the two sons of her second husband, conscientiously devoting herself to their education and moral development. The hasbaud and sons went to the front when the war came, and later, impelled by a strong sense of duty, she also went to the scene of action and tenderly cared for the sick and wounded soldiers. It was these loving ministrations that earned for her the title of 'Mother Stewart," by which she always loves to be called.

In 1872 Mrs. Stewart made a stirring address before the first mass meeting in Springfield, O., inaugurating the temperance crusade, the influence of which has become felt throughout the length and breadth of the land. About that time several suits were successfully brought against liquor sellers by the wives of drunkards under the Adair civil damage law, and in a number of these cases Mrs. Stewart assisted the prosecuting attorney, making vigorous and effective appeals to the juries.

Mother Stewart's effective work in her own locality soon attracted wide attention, and she was in great demand as a temperance lecturer and organizer throughout the country. Her beneficent and effective temperance work has covered a wide range of activity, including the writing of books, periodicals and newsp. per articles. Her books are "Memorie, of the Crusade" and "The Crusader In Great Britain."

Total Abstinence Jubil e. With the exception of a few details, the arrangements for the celebration of the silver jubilee of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of America, which will be held in New York during the early part of August, have been completed. The convention will hold its sessions from Aug. 7 to Aug. 11. Mgr. Satolli, the apostolic delegate, will say public mass in the cathedral, and the most distinguished of the Catholic clergy and laity in the country will be present. Archbishop Corrigan has manifested great interest in the success of the convention and has put upon it the seal of his approval.—New York World.

Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And dou't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco vill cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day be ore you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to a solutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco itend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty caurs regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told her I must give up the une of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called 'Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bae," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Cure," Three veels ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely chief I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which overy inveterate rincker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful and can fully recommend it.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr
James Reid. of the town of Buraside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Cura"
He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds
He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one bex did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to tose his taste for tobacce, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had list all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

This is to certify that 1. F D Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two veles.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for eigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Broo-Curo" to all who are slives to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end it kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives cut of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for eigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will teel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason beough not do snything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes i due not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system.

That hought the goods and thank God and all concerned. I am a sound person to-day. Hoping the unay reach the unfortunate eigarette master. I romain.

My little son, who look'd from thoughtful eyes And mov'd and spoke in quiet, grown up wise, Having my law the seventh time disobeyed, i struck him and dismiss'd

I struck him and dismiss'd
With hard words and unkiss'd,
His mother, who was patient, being dead.
Then, fearing lest his grief should hinder sleep,
I visited his bed,
But found him slumbering deep,
With darkened cyclids and their lashes yet
From his late sobbing wet,
And I, with moan.

And I, with moan, Kissing away his tears, left others of my own, For on a table drawn beside his head He had put, within his reach, A box of counters and a red vein'd stone, A piece of glass abraded by the beach And six or seven shells,

A bottle with bluebells
And two French copper coms, rang'd there with careful art To comfort his sad heart.

So when that night I prayed To God and wept and said:
"Ah, when at last we he with tranced breath,
Not vexing thee in death,

And thou rememberest of what toys We make our 10ys. How weakly understood Thy great commanded good, Then, fatherly not less Than I whom thou hast molded from the clay,

Thou'lt leave thy wrath and say,
'I will be sorry for their childishness.'"

How a Texan Got a Good Meal at a General's Expense.

Mr. Goss. in his "Recollections of a Private," quotes the remarks of a Confederate about two famous leaders under whom he had fought. This man said of Stonewall Jackson, "If you uns had some good general like him, I reckon you uns could lick we uns." When asked whether he had ever seen General Lee, he replied: "Yes; I was a sort of orderly for Uncle Robert for awhile. He's a mighty calmlike man when a fight is going on."

This story is told of General John B. Magruder:

"Our General Magruder thinks a powerful heap of what he cats and wears. He allers has a right smart of truck.

"There was a Texas feller one time who had straggled from his brigade, and he were a pert one, he were, stranger. He were hungry enough to eat a general, buttons and all-that Texas feller were. He saw Magrader's table all spread, with a heap of good fixin's on it. and I'll be hanged if he didn't walk in, pert as you please, grabbed a knife and fork and opened fire all along the line on them fixin's.

"Magruder heard something in his tent and hurried in and asked that Texas chap what brought him thar. The Texan 'lowed he were hungry. Then the general, stiff and grandlike, said, 'Do you know, sir, at whose table you are "The Texas chap, he kept drivin in the pickets on them chick'ns, and he said to the gen'ral, said he, 'No, old hoss, and I ain't no ways partic'lar, nei-ther, since I've come solderin.''

"What did Magrader do?" asked a Yankee listener.

"Do? Why, he saw them chicken fixin's were spiled, and he jest put his arm under his coattail, pulled his hat over his eyes and walked out. And that Texas hoss didn't leave anything on that thar table 'cept the plates-not even his compliments.

"Who were he? Well, no matter. He hadn't no manners, he hadn't. He were powerful hungry, stranger, that chap

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was taken down with pneumonia, succeeding lagrippe. Terrible paroxyams of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. No. 15 MONTGOMERY STREET MIDDLETOWN, N. Y.

Among the many prominent temperance workers who attended the recent convention of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance union in London none was received with more enthusiasm crattracted more attention than the gray haired, sweet voiced "crusader," Mrs. Eliza D. Stewart, known the world over as "Mother Stewart." Her good work of nearly 20 years ago, when through her efforts the British Woman's Temperance union was organized, had not been fargotten, and the reception accorded her when she spoke at the City Temple amounted to an ovation.

Mrs Stewart is a native of Ohio and was born at Piketon April 25, 1816. She was left an orphan at 12 and thrown upon her own re onices. Early she developed those sterling characteristics which made her so useful in educational and reform work. She was educated at Mariett, seminary and adopted teaching as a profession, attaining a representative standing among the educators of

She has been twice married, the second time to Hiram Stewart, who was a stanch advocate of the temperance principles she advocated and greatly assisted her in the work. She had no children of her own, but took to her motherly heart the two sons of her second hasband, conscientionsly devoting herself to their education and moral development. The husband and sons went to the front when the war came, and later, impelled by a strong sense of duty, she also went to the scene of action and tenderly cared for the sick and wounded soldiers. It was these loving ministrations that earned for her the title of "Mother Stewart," by which she always loves to be called.

In 1872 Mrs. Stewart made a stirring address before the first mass meeting in Springfield, O., inaugurating the temperance crusade, the influence of which has become felt throughout the length and breadth of the land. About that time several suits were successfully brought against liquor sellers by the waves of drunkards under the Adair civil damage law, and in a number of these cases Mrs. Stewart assisted the prosecuting attorney, making vigorous and effective appeals to the juries. Mother Stewart's effective work in her own locality soon attracted wide attention, and she was in great demand as a temperance lecturer and organizer throughout the country. Her beneficent and effective temperance work has covered a wide range of activity, including the writing of books, periodicals and newspaper articles. Her books are "Memories of the Crusade" and "The Crusader In Great Britain."

I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sappua; the lives cut of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason twould not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in charettes: I due not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system.

PROCEFDINGS OF MONDAY NICHT'S ADJOURNED SESSION.

Want a Franchise for Bonnell and Scanton Streets-The Paving Question -The Proposed Switch-Bridge Repairs and Long Belayed Street Repairs—Bitis Audited.

An adjourned session of the Common Council was held last evening. present, President Dorrance and Aldermen Bastian, Bowler, Funnell, Hirst, Reed and Sinsabaugh.

ASK FOR A FRANCHISE ON BONNELL AND STANTON STREETS.

An application of the Middletown-Coshen Traction Co. for a franchise through Bonnell street from West Main and through Olive or Stanton street to Lake avenue was read.

Mr. Reed moved that the application be filed and an advertisement be published according to law, fixing Aug. 15 as the date of a hearing upon the application.

Mr. Bowler asked that a cooking stove be supplied to Monhagen Hose house, and moved that the Fire Committee be empowered to purchase one. Motion carried.

A communication from E. A. Brown saking for payment of the five per cent. withheld on account of the North street paving, amounting to $314.97, was laid over.

Mr. Funnell asked that the addition to Phonix and Ontario Hose houses for kitchens asked for last Fear and provided for in the annual Sudget be erected, and moved that the matter be referred to the Build-Eng Committee. Carried.

THE PAVING QUESTION.

Mr. Bastian offered a resolution that bids for paving East and West Main streets be asked for, said bids to be opened Aug. 5th.

Mr. Bowler thought West Main street people preferred asphalt if they submitted to the paving of the street at all.

Mr. Hirst thought the East Main street work should be attended to first and West Main be left alone.

The City Engineer was asked as to the number of yards of the city's share of paving West Main street. and replied that it was about 1,200 yards. He also stated that the city would be required to pave 2 117 yards on East Main street.

Mr. Hirst moved as an amendment to Mr. Bastian's resolution that bids he asked for the East Main street pavement.

Mr. Bowler said he would vote against asking for bids. The city should do the work.

Mr. Funnell said there would not the money enough to pave East and held no insurance. West Main streets, and he would oppose exceeding the appropriation.

Mr. Hirst's amendment was car-

THE PROPOSED SWITCH.

Capt. Rockwell spoke in reference to the proposed turnout at the junction of West Main street and Wickham avenue. He said it was within one hundred feet of the half-way point between the square and the State Hospital It would interfere Toss with travel at that point than any other. He had made careful messurements and found that it could be put in between he two cruesings, and would not encroach on the drive on West Main street.

Capt. Rockwell also asked that permission be granted to lay the track on Lake avenue, on the north side of the street, from Stanton street to Summit avenue. He explained that his company now has a franchise for Lake avenue, and if the permission is granted, he would put men to work at once on this portion of the road, and if the franchise for Bonneil and Olive streets be granted the line could be soon completed; if not, the line could be extended down Lake avenue to Wickham avenue and the West Main street line be ntandoned.

On motion of Mr. Reed the matter of the track on Lake avenue and the turn out were referred to the Railroad Committee with power to act.

Mr. Hirst asked that the Street Sup-Gifatendant be notified to fix the bridges before an accident occurs.

Mr. Reed said the Street Committee is only waiting to get plank to make the repairs.

Mr. Hirst said the city might have a law suit while waiting for plank. He also said he favored building cubstantial bridges, and getting rid of the old wooden ones that are constantly beeding repairs.

On motion of Mr. Sinsabauge, cross walks were ordered across Prespect street, on Linden avenue and across John street on Highland avenue.

ALL IN THE HANDS OF THE MAYOR

Mr. Reed said he thought it high time that the repairs of streets be done. The Mayor, who had been authorized to procure crushed stone, had not done so and had failed to are weak, tired, languid and all run meet the Street Committee Saturday evening as agreed.

Mr. Bowler said the Mayor had apologized to him for not meeting the Odmmittee. Mr. Bowier added-"It's all in the nands of the Mayor,"

Mr. Asstian offered a resolution, which des adopted, requiring the City Engineer to prepare plans and specifications for a vitrified brick giavement on East Main a reet, beratklin Square and the Eric Great Damage Done to Crops in the Vicinity of Montgomery - Buildings Struck by Lightning and Burned, F. om our Montgomery Corr. spondent.

One of the most severe rain storms that has visited this section in many year; began at about 3:30, on Saturday afternoon. Wind, lightning and hail accompanied the storm, and it fairly poured for an hour and a half. An immense amount of damage was done, and the farmers are in a dilemma about their later crops. The corn crop is in a most dilapitated condition, while the other crops fared nearly as badly. The lightning played havoc. The barn and wagon house of Thos. Costello, near Goodwill Church, was struck and burned to the ground, together with all its contents, including all his hay and grain, even his oat crop, which he had only harvested the day before. Three pigs, two wagons, tools, etc., were also consumed. Mr. Costello

A cow belonging to Christopher Mould, of near here, was also killed by the deadly fluid.

A barn near Walden was struck and burned, and a building at Coldenham was also destroyed. A hailstone was weighed in this village that tipped the scale at two ounces.

The First Congregational Church.

During the absence of Rev. Dr. Robinson on his vacation, which began yesterday, the First Congregational Church will be given a thorough cleaning and new furnaces will be put in by the Ladies' Aid Society. The church will be closed next Sunday, out it is expected that Rev. O. Clark Crawford will occupy the pulpit on the following Sunday.

Choked to Death on an Apple.

Mr. John D. Rockafellow is mourning the death of a valuable ox, one of a yoke which he purchased in Sullivan county last spring to work on his place near Orawford Junction. The ox. a "breachy" creature, got out of the barn. Sunday night, made its way under an apple tree and tried to swallow an apple whole, but the apple stuck in its throat and choked it to death.

Fell Against a Buzz Saw.

Chas. Wright, a fourteen-year-old boy employed in Jeanings' Saw Works in Port Jervis, yesterday afternoon, fell against a revolving circular saw. His right arm was badly lacerated, the wound extending to the bone.

Harvesting Gats - Apples Affected by the Drouth-A Three Pound Bass in His Boat-Model Farmers-Dog Days

-Light Hay Crop. Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURT-

-Oats are rips and are being gathered. The crop is a fair yield. On account of the protracted drouth apples are dropping from the trees prematurely, besides apples will not attain the size and flavor they would if the season had been more favorable to the growth of the fruit.

-Dog days with all the accustomed humidity and heat have commenced and their influence have a depressing effect on a certain class of humanity, especially when old Sol goars high in the heavens.

-I notice and hear it remarked that all kinds of stinging insects, such as waspe, bumblebees, yellowjackets and hornets are scarce this summer. I have not seen a bee's nest this year. It seems there is a missing lick in insectology.

-It is stated that in the base ball game, played last Saturday in Slate Hill, that the laurels won were in favor of the Slate Hillers. Bip, hip, hurrah fer our side.

-From reports of various farmers in this town I judge that they have only gathered but half of the usual crop of hay this year. If that is the case farmers will be obliged to practice strict economy in feeding in order to carry their cattle through the coming winter, and the foddering season lasts six months from the middle of November till the middle
